To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to recommend Gabriel Wan, our Business Management Intern, who has been an invaluable asset to the company over the past five months. Gabriel has consistently proven himself to be a reliable and hardworking team member who has contributed meaningfully throughout his time with us.

He supported company initiatives by monitoring dashboards that helped track operational data more effectively, and worked closely with clients to ensure that their needs and objectives were met. His assistance with presentation content and note-taking greatly improved our team's efficiency.

Gabriel consistently managed multiple responsibilities and tracked various project details with diligence and accuracy, providing key insights that allowed us to identify process gaps.

I firmly believe in his ability to take ownership of his work. He is a fast learner who picks things up quickly, fulfilling his responsibilities with little supervision regardless of the task. His eagerness to learn has made it a pleasure to work with him.

I have no doubt that with his strong work ethic, Gabriel will continue to excel in all his future endeavours.

Sincerely,
